

UCM Virtual Scavenger Hunt

COVID-19 Edition

Rules:

- Just do what each section asks, being creative is NOT cheating . The primary purpose is to have fun, so if you are having fun ... you are winning.
- Sharing is caring! If you know other families/roommates/singles who would enjoy playing along. GREAT! There is no limit to the number of teams who can play.
- Each week the 'Hunt' will start at the end of the week and be posted on the Facebook page and the Website . It will be finished by 5pm Tuesday so that the Best Answers can be shared at the Wednesday 1:30pm Youth Zoom-In
- All entries should include an email address, names of participants, and a REALLY GREAT Team Name.
- If you have any questions email me at DLL@UUCM.CA

Have Fun

Kathleen Cairnie-Sorensen

Week 1

Section 1

Take a picture of :

1. the biggest paper clip in your home.
2. The funniest stuffie you have
3. Your pet doing something extraordinary (if you don't have a pet put on ears and a tail and act out the part yourself)
4. Under your bed!
5. All the shoes in your home in a big pile.

Section 2

Take a video of one of the following

1. Your team singing
2. Your team dressed the same
3. Your team playing Twister
4. Your team doing a conga line
5. Something else that your team thinks is fun to do together.

Section 3

One of the advantages of having extra time is to be together for meals. So send in a video of you eating together. Bonus marks for innovative food, touching remarks, or anything that makes us happy.

Section 4

1. Creativity is a great resilience factor, so do something creative with your team and send in a picture.

Colour something! You can download it and do it old school or colour something online and send in a screenshot. Here is a cool elephant to try.

Share the fun. Post an announcement of this on ANY Social media platform. Encourage sharing. Take a screenshot of the number of likes.
